

Intro

Andrew Darbyshire founded his software business Pacsoft in the 1980's and now has staff and offices throughout Australia and the United States of America. His path to success wasn't easy and he has experienced significant loss along the way however the lessons he learnt on his journey have allowed him to free himself of his business on a day to day basis, to enjoy being able to work on it instead of in it, and to concentrate on his philanthropic interests.

Andrew is a member of the Florey Neurosciences Foundation Council, The Zoo's Victoria Foundation Board, and the Petstock Foundation Board. Chairman Click Foundation. Patron and Founder of Caitlin's Retreat. Chairman - Child Abuse Prevention Research Australia Board @ Monash, A Foundation Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and Chairman Rees Advisory Group. And is now the author of the highly acclaimed book: Think Big Live Large.

Would you please join me in welcoming Mr Andrew Darbyshire

Please: No food service during speech - Lights down, note pads and pen. Stool with a back on stage. Hand held mike. Thanks